Dear Dr Reed,
I hope you have been well. How is Lana? I was just curious as to whether you've noticed anything different about her recently, especially after everything that happened last year, because I know she was really upset when her mother

Dear Emmaline,

I hope you're well. Unfortunately, as I'm sure you're aware, our school has a no-tolerance policy for physical altercations between students. Consequently, I am going to have to give you a detention for the incident that occurred during our Drama lesson today.

Is everything alright at the moment? I know that high school can be very stressful sometimes, so please don't hesitate to let me know if there's anything I can do to help you.

Regards,
Mrs Chrystie

Dear Mrs Chrystie,
I'm very sorry for what happened during class today. I didn't mean to hurt Lana, and I'm sorry that I disrupted class. Everything is alright at the moment. Thank you for checking.
Kind Regards,
Emmaline

Re: Incident in Drama Today

Dear Mrs Chrystie,
I'm so sorry for everything that happened. I'm happy to accept all of the punishment you think is in order. But I wasn't trying to hurt Lana, I promise.
I think I need your help, quite urgently. Is it possible that I can talk to you tomorrow before school? It's difficult to explain over email.
Thank you so much.
Kind regards,
Emmaline
